2. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- 2.1 The Executive shall, in a competent manner to the best of the Executive's ability, perform the duties and responsibilities and exercise the powers which from time to time may be assigned or allocated to the Executive or vested in the Executive by the Board and shall devote the whole of the Executive's time, ability and attention to the duties under this Agreement during normal office hours and at such other times as may be reasonably required for the proper performance of those duties.

The Executive shall at all times comply with the Company's Code of Conduct and any measures adopted by the Company from time to time to prevent bribery and corruption or the facilitation of tax evasion and shall use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that no person acting on behalf of the Company commits any act of bribery (within the meaning of the Bribery Act 2010) or commits an offence under the law of any jurisdiction that would constitute a UK or foreign tax evasion offence or a UK or foreign tax evasion facilitation offence (within the meaning of Part 3 of the Criminal Finances Act 2017).

2.9 The Executive shall be bound by the provisions of Schedule 3 (protection of business interests).

3. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND SHARE DEALINGS

3.1 Subject to clause 3.2, the Executive shall not during employment whether alone or jointly with or on behalf of any other person, firm or company and whether as principal, partner, manager, employee, contractor, director, consultant, investor or otherwise (except as a representative or nominee of the Company or any Group Company or otherwise with the prior consent in writing of the Board) be, or make preparations to be, engaged, concerned or interested in any other business, occupation or undertaking except:

3.2.2 prior to commencing such role consent is obtained from the Board such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.

3.3 The Executive shall not during employment introduce to or plan or attempt to introduce to any other person, firm, company or organisation, business of any kind with which the Company, or any Group Company, is able to deal, and shall not have any financial interest in, or derive any financial or other benefit from, contracts or transactions entered into by the Company, or any Group Company, with any third party, without first disclosing such interest or benefit to the Board and obtaining its written approval.

3.6 Subject always to clauses 3.1 and 3.2, during the Term the Executive shall not without the prior written consent of the Board engage in any activities, public office or other occupation outside his employment which may detract from the proper and timely performance of his duties under this Agreement.

4. REMUNERATION

4.1 The Executive shall receive a fixed annual salary of the amount set out in Schedule 1 which shall accrue from day to day and be payable by equal monthly instalments in arrears on or before the last day of each calendar month or such salary as may be agreed and confirmed to the Executive in writing by the Remuneration Committee in its sole discretion from time to time on annual review, the first review to be in 2021 without any obligation to increase the same.

4.2 In addition to the Executive's fixed annual salary, the Company may in its absolute discretion pay the Executive a bonus of such amount, at such intervals and subject to such conditions as the Remuneration Committee shall in its sole discretion determine. The Remuneration Committee reserves the right to amend the terms of the bonus calculation at any time. Payment of a bonus to the Executive in one year shall confer no right on the Executive to receive a bonus in any other year. The Executive shall not be entitled to receive any bonus if, at or before the date on which the bonus would otherwise have been payable, the Executive's employment terminates for any reason, or the Executive is under notice.

4.3 The Executive shall not be entitled to any fees in respect of any directorship of the Company or any Group Company.

4.4 All payments and/or benefits payable to the Executive are subject to and conditional upon, where applicable, the consent of the Company's shareholders. The Company reserves the right to change the rate of contributions that it and/or members pay to the Pension Scheme from time to time.

5.3 After enrolment, the Executive may opt out if the Executive so wishes. It is the Executive's responsibility to exercise that right if the Executive does not wish to be a member. The Company reserves the right to re-enrol the Executive in a pension scheme at a later date if required by legislation. The Executive has indicated that he has reached the lifetime allowance and therefore he wishes to opt out of these pension arrangements. On this basis, the Company shall, in lieu of the contributions specified at clause 5.2, pay an annual salary supplement (the "Supplement") (subject to the provisos below) of 6 percent of basic annual salary. Any payment under this clause shall be paid in equal monthly instalments. The payment of the Supplement (if applicable) to the Executive under this clause shall be subject to the following conditions:

In the event that the Company is required (by auto-enrolment legislation or otherwise) to pay a contribution to a pension arrangement in respect of the Executive, then the amount of the Supplement shall be reduced by the amount of that contribution and the Executive authorises the Company to deduct such contributions from his salary for this purpose. The Executive will, in accordance with auto-enrolment legislation, be able to opt out of any pension arrangement into which the Company is required to enrol him. It will be the Executive's responsibility to exercise any available opt-out right if the Executive does not wish to be a member of such arrangement.

5.4 The Company reserves the right to discontinue, replace or amend its pension arrangements at any time.

- 6.6 No liability shall accrue to the Company in the event that insurance cover is refused by the provider or any conditions or limitations to the benefit are applied by the provider. Except as set out in clause 6.6 the Company's sole obligations in respect of the insurance benefits referred to above are to pay the premium from time to time required by the provider and to pay to the Executive such sums (if any) as may from time to time be received by the Company from the provider in respect of any claim made by the Executive under the scheme.

The Executive may carry over up to 5 days holiday from one holiday year which must be taken by the end of March of the next holiday year. The Company's holiday year runs from January to December.

7.2 Upon termination of the Executive's employment the Executive shall either be entitled to salary in lieu of any outstanding pro rata holiday entitlement or be required to repay to the Company any salary received in respect of holiday taken in excess of pro rata holiday entitlement, such payment to be calculated on the basis of 1/260th of the fixed annual salary payable to the Executive for each day of outstanding or excess holiday entitlement as appropriate.

In that event, any payments made under this clause in excess of statutory sick pay shall be treated as being made to the Executive by way of loan and shall be recoverable by the Company if and to the extent that the Executive recovers damages or compensation for loss of earnings from the said third party and/or from the Criminal Injuries Compensation Authority or the Motor Insurers' Bureau or any other similar body by action or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, in such circumstances, the situations in which the Company may terminate the Executive's employment are the following:
 - 12.4.1 where the Company has cause in relation to the circumstances set out in clause 12.8; or

12.7 Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses 12.1 and 12.3, the Company shall be entitled, by notifying the Executive in writing, to terminate this Agreement and the Executive's employment forthwith without any payment by way of compensation, damages, payment in lieu of notice or otherwise if:

12.7.7 the Executive acts in any way which in the reasonable opinion of the Board is likely to bring the Company or any Group Company into serious disrepute or discredit, or materially prejudice the interests of the Company or any Group Company or materially affects the Executive's suitability for the type of work the Executive performs; or

- 12.7.8 the Executive fails to comply in any material respect with any policy of the Company or any Group Company which has been communicated to the Executive including without limitation any policy in respect of dealing in shares, inside information, anti-bribery and corruption, prevention of the facilitation of tax evasion, equal opportunities and harassment, data protection and use of email and the internet; or
- 12.7.9 the Executive ceases by reason of the Executive's own act or default to be a director of the Company (except where the Executive has received the consent or concurrence of the Board); or
- 12.7.10 the Executive enters into any transaction or behave in any other way which constitutes an offence for the purposes of Part V of the Criminal Justice Act 1993 or which constitutes market abuse for the purposes of EU MAR or any applicable legislation relating to market abuse; or
- 12.7.11 the Executive commits any material breach of director's duties under Part 10 of the Companies Act 2006, in which event, for the purposes of this Agreement, the Termination Date shall be the date of the written notice terminating the Executive's employment¹.

During such period, the Board shall be entitled at any time to appoint a further executive, director or employee having responsibilities similar to those of the Executive to act jointly with the Executive and in that event the Executive shall perform duties and exercise powers in a
