The Committee may take decisions without a meeting by unanimous written consent, when deemed necessary or desirable by the Chair of the Committee.
- 2.6 Only Members of the Committee have the right to attend Committee Meetings. However, other individuals such as the Chair of the Board (if they are not a member of the Committee) and/or the Company's Chief Executive and/or Chief Financial Officer and/or HR Director may be invited to attend and speak at meetings (or parts thereof) by the Committee Chair. Other persons may be called upon or shall be able to speak by prior arrangement with the Chair of the Committee.

3. SECRETARY

The Company Secretary, or their nominee, shall act as the Secretary of the Committee and will ensure that the Committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration to be given to the issues.

4. QUORUM

4.1 The quorum for decisions of the Committee shall be any two members.

4.2 A duly convened meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Committee.

6. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

6.1 Meetings may also be called by the Secretary of the Committee at the request of any member of the Committee.

6.2 At least five working days' notice of any meeting of the Committee shall be given, although such notice period may be waived or shortened with the consent in writing of all the members of the Committee for the time being. 7. MINUTES OF MEETINGS

7.1 If the Secretary's meeting attendance is authorised by the Chair of the Committee, the Secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of the Committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance and the existence of any conflicts of interest. In the absence of the Secretary, the Chair of the Committee shall designate any Committee member or other meeting participant who is authorised to attend the meeting by the Chair of the Committee to minute the proceedings.

7.2 The draft minutes of the meetings of the Committee shall be agreed with the Chair of the Committee and then circulated to all members of the Committee and, once approved, to the Board and the Company Secretary unless a conflict of interest exists or, exceptionally, it would be inappropriate to do so in the opinion of the Chair of the Committee.

8. ENGAGEMENT WITH SHAREHOLDERS

The Chair of the Committee shall be available in person or by video at the Annual General Meeting of the Company to answer questions arising from the Committee's annual report of the Company's remuneration policy and practices, which will form part of the Company's annual report to shareholders, and generally on the Committee's activities and achievements. The Chair of the Committee should also seek engagement with shareholders on significant matters related to the Committee's areas of responsibility, as appropriate.

9. DUTIES

The Committee shall, on behalf of the Board and the shareholders of the Company:

- 9.1 be responsible for determining, in accordance with the principles and provisions of the UK Corporate Governance Code, the policy for directors' remuneration and setting remuneration for the Chair of the Board, executive directors and senior management including the company secretary (the "Executive Group"). No director or senior manager shall be involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration. The Board itself, or, where required by the articles of association, the shareholders should determine the remuneration of the non-executive directors, within the limits set in the articles of association.
- 9.2 in determining the remuneration policy, take into account relevant legal and regulatory requirements, the provisions and recommendations of the UK Corporate Governance Code, associated guidance and any other factors which it deems necessary. The objective of such policy shall be to attract, retain and motivate executive management of the quality required to run the Company successfully without paying more than is necessary, having regard to views of shareholders and other stakeholders.
- 9.3 in determining executive director remuneration policy and practices, address the following:
 - 9.3.1 fairness: remuneration plans should be designed to deliver fair rewards and facilitate the recruitment and retention of organisation talent necessary for the Company to achieve its strategic objectives;
 - 9.3.2 clarity: remuneration arrangements should be transparent and promote effective management with shareholders and the workforce;
 - 9.3.3 simplicity: remuneration structures should avoid complexity and their rationale and operation should be easy to understand;
 - 9.3.4 risk: remuneration arrangements should ensure reputational and other risks from excessive rewards, and behavioural risks that can arise from target based incentive plans, are identified and mitigated;

payments based on erroneous or misleading data, misconduct, misstatement of accounts, serious reputational damage and corporate failure;

- 9.10 approve any payment to, and/or any non-cash benefit to be provided to, or for the benefit of an executive director or other member of the Executive Group and any other terms and conditions to apply on termination of that person's employment (once the decision to dismiss or reach agreement to terminate employment has been taken by the Board);
- 9.11 approve the design of, and determine targets for, any performance related pay schemes operated by the Company for the Executive Group and consider setting a limit in monetary terms for what it considers is a reasonable reward for individual executives;
- 9.12 establish and review, as the Committee considers necessary, key performance indicators, gender and other pay reporting metrics;
- 9.13 in relation to any incentive plan for the Executive Group, including cash bonus plans and any share-based plans:
 - 9.13.1 determine policy for the grant of equity grants, options or awards to executive directors and senior executives of the Company and the Group, to ensure that they are provided with appropriate incentives consistent with the Company's policy;
 - 9.13.2 approve all and any equity grants, options or awards to executive directors and senior executives, including consideration of the quantum of grants and vesting schedules;
 - 9.13.3 set appropriate performance targets in connection with the equity grants, options or awards;
 - 9.13.4 determine, in conjunction with the Company's advisers, whether such performance targets have been satisfied;
 - 9.13.5 approve any amendments to the plans prior to obtaining any necessary shareholder approval;
 - 9.13.6 exercise any discretion specified in the rules of the plans and generally oversee the administration of plans offered to executive directors and/or other senior executives;
 - 9.13.7 ensure the plans include provisions that would enable the Company to recover sums paid or withhold the payment of any sum, and specify the circumstances in which it would be appropriate to do so; and
 - 9.13.8 determine each year whether any equity grants, options or awards will be made under the plans and, if so, the overall amount of such equity grants, options or awards, the individual equity grants, options or awards to executive directors, Company Secretary and other senior executives and the performance targets to be used.

- 9.14 consider and review the terms of any new equity plans for the Executive Group;
- 9.15 oversee the administration of any all-employee share scheme operated by or to be established by the Company in accordance with the rules of that scheme and any applicable legal and stock exchange requirements and with any requirements of Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs;
- 9.16 where required by law to do so, ensure that any remuneration payment or payment for loss of office to any current or former Chair or executive director of the Board is consistent with the most recent directors' remuneration policy that has been approved by shareholders or is otherwise approved by the shareholders as required by the Regulations, the Companies Act 2006, the Listing Rules of the UK Financial Conduct Authority (the "FCA") and all other relevant laws and regulations;
- 9.17 consider and make recommendations to the Board concerning disclosure of details of remuneration packages and structures in addition to those required by law or by the FCA or the London Stock Exchange;
- 9.18 obtain reliable, up-to-date information about remuneration in other companies of comparable scale and complexity. The Committee shall have full authority to commission any reports or surveys which it deems necessary to help it fulfil its obligations. The Committee will be at liberty (at the cost of the Company) to obtain outside legal or other independent professional advice in carrying out its tasks and such persons shall be permitted to attend meetings of the Committee but shall not be members of it;
- 9.19 be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing and setting the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the Committee and to commission or purchase any reports, surveys or information which it deems necessary at the expense of the Company. However, the Committee should avoid designing pay structures based solely on benchmarking to the market or on the advice of remuneration consultants;
- 9.20 determine the policy for, and scope of, pension arrangements for each executive director and other senior executives including ensuring that only basic salary is pensionable and that the pension contribution rates for executive directors, or payments in lieu, are aligned with those available to the workforce;
- 9.21 oversee any major changes in employee benefits structures throughout the Company or Group;
- 9.22 ensure that remuneration schemes promote long term shareholdings by executive directors that support alignment with long-term shareholder interests and consider share award vesting and holding periods, and a formal policy setting out (i) post-employment shareholding requirements and (ii) the minimum shareholding requirement that an executive director is expected to meet during their employment, as well as the time period during which the executive director must achieve this requirement and the consequences of the executive director not achieving the stated shareholding requirement;

- 9.23 design remuneration schemes and policies and practices to support strategy and promote long term sustainable success, with executive remuneration aligned to company purpose and values, clearly linked to the successful delivery of the Company's long term strategy, and reserve the exceptional right to use discretion to override formulaic outcomes, potentially including provisions that would enable the Company to recover and/or withhold sums or share awards and the specific circumstances in which it would be appropriate to do so;
- 9.24 agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses from members of the Board; and
- 9.25 consider whether or not and to what extent the views of employees and shareholders should be obtained in relation to the formulation of the executive directors' remuneration policy.

10. REPORTING RESPONSIBILITIES

- 10.1 All decisions of the Committee shall be reported formally to the Board by the Chair of the Committee.
- 10.2 The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed and adequate time should be available for Board discussion where necessary. All decisions on recommendations referred to the Board shall take effect only upon approval thereof by resolution of the Board, at a meeting which is properly convened and constituted and in accordance with the Company's articles of association.
- 10.3 The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.

- 10.7 Through the Chair of the Board (or, where the roles of Chief Executive and Chair of the Board are combined, the Senior Independent Director), the Committee shall ensure that the Company maintains contact as required with its principal shareholders about remuneration.

- 10.8 If the Committee has appointed a remuneration consultant, the consultant should be identified in the annual report alongside a statement about any other connection it has with the company or individual directors.
